

LATEST NEWS

The "Polar Vortex" made news all across the country last week as the Midwest and East Coast were suffering through extremely cold temperatures and winter storms. In Arizona we've enjoyed a very moderate winter and this week temperatures have been in the upper-60's to low-70's. It's no wonder the phone has been ringing lately and our appointment book has filled up. The Arizona sunshine has always been a major draw for vacationers & seasonal residents. Now that our housing market is finally seeing some increases in inventory it's a great time again for buyer's to find that ideal seasonal residence.
