Volume 32 - October 2014

Further confirming things are picking up in the luxury market like we mentioned last month are some new contracts in the Dove Mountain area. Stephen just helped some buyer clients get under contract for a Dove Mountain home priced at over $1,500,000 and there were two other new contracts put in place last week in that area too on luxury properties. Call to set your appointments now for this Fall & Winter season as our schedule is already beginning to fill up. New properties are coming on the market weekly which further helps provide a wide selection of inventory to choose from. We always enjoy speaking about what type of home you're looking for and sending out multiple properties to consider or creating automatic emails that will update you with new homes.
