Volume 33 - November 2014

Coming soon to the Northwest Tucson area will be a gated custom home subdivision marketed jointly by Team Woodall & Brenda O'Brien! Named "The Estates at Tortolita Preserve", this neighborhood consists of 25 custom home sites ranging from between 2.5 - 4.17 acres. Buyers will have the option to purchase lots individually and choose their own builder, or they may partner with local builder John Herder for one of his exquisitely crafted homes. As the preferred builder at Tortolita Preserve, John has a variety of uniquely styled floor plans featuring oversized garage spaces that simply can't be found elsewhere. John Herder is a fourth generation builder who emphasizes quality and has perfected special building practices that are unmatched by most other builders. Herder Building can also help design and build your own fully custom layout. The Estates at Tortolita Preserve itself offers panoramic views of the Tortolita & Catalina Mountain ranges and very generous lot sizes. To the west of "The Estates" is the 2,400 acre Tortolita Preserve, a lasting open space with miles of hiking and biking trails.
