Volume 36 - February 2015

Stone Canyon's new clubhouse is underway! A grading permit was received last week and ground was broken immediately thereafter. The building permit is currently under review with the Town of Oro Valley and is expected to be approved by the time grading improvements are complete. Combine this with the launch of The Enclave at Stone Canyon, and the community has much to be excited about. Stephen recently put one of his lot listings under contract in Stone Canyon and remains a premier source of knowledge for anyone looking at this exclusive Oro Valley community. Remember to visit Team Woodall's Stone Canyon specific website - StoneCanyonProperties.com - for all the currently available properties. Better yet, contact Stephen for a comprehensive overview of the community and learn of additional homes and lots which may be available but aren't yet listed for sale in MLS.
