Volume 78 - August 2018

One of the most anticipated reports for the Tucson real estate market is the Long Realty Mid-Year Housing Report. The 2018 edition recently was released and there are excellent graphs and data points that show the current state of the market. Low inventory levels are still the big story, causing the median price point to rebound to near peak levels. The accompanying graph shows this buyer's market all the way up to about the $600,000 price range. Please take a look at the entire Mid-Year Housing Report to get all the best Tucson data, including a peek at downtown Tucson's revitalization with ongoing development.
